1. Stanislaw Buczynski, Polish Communist who is a member of the editorial staff of the Polish Communist organ in Argentina, Polska Wyzwolona, was reported to be returning to Warsaw on 3 June 1948 for the purpose of undergoing a period of training with the Polish Communist Party. Buczynski expects to remain in Poland three months before returning to Argentina. Arrangements for his trip were made by Martin Raduj, Polish Communist leader in Argentina who returned from Poland on 25 May.
2. Source reports that Buczynski is one of several Polish Communists from various South American countries who is being recalled to Poland for reindoctrination. The names of the other individuals are not known, but they are scheduled to return to Poland aboard Polish ships which ply between Gdynia and Buenos Aires.
3. During June and July several Polish Communists in Argentina will return to Poland permanently. Among those returning are Teodoro Cysz, Stanislaw Stasiejko, (fnu) Beziuk, (fnu) Biegniewicz, (fnu) Thor, and (fnu) Malinowski; all are members of the Polish Communist-front Maria Konopnicka Society.
